

Drawing and Sketchbook
	Nursery (Expressive Arts and Design)	Reception (Expressive Arts and Design)	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Substantive knowledge & Skills	I can explore making marks using pencils, crayons, chalk and other drawing tools.	I can explore drawing with pencils, charcoal, pastels, chalk and other media.	I can explore how artists use drawing to represent the world around them.	I can explore how artists use observation and their surroundings as inspiration.	I can explore how artists use drawing materials and physical movement to create expressive work.	I can explore how illustrators and other artists use drawing to communicate stories, ideas and meaning.	I can explore how artists and designers use drawing, typography and symbols to communicate ideas and meaning.	I can analyse how artists and designers use drawing to develop ideas and create purposeful outcomes.
	I can make different types of lines, shapes and marks.	I can use different types of line and mark to represent what I see and imagine.	I can use careful observation to draw natural and familiar objects.	I can make sustained observational drawings by looking carefully at objects and their details.	I can use charcoal and other drawing media to create a range of controlled and gestural marks.	I can respond to visual images and discuss how artists use drawing to communicate.	I can analyse and respond to artists' work, considering purpose, intention and visual impact.	I can use my sketchbook independently to investigate artists, record observations, generate ideas, experiment, refine and reflect.
	I can use marks to represent familiar objects, people and experiences.	I can look closely at familiar objects and people and include observed details in my drawings.	I can explore line, shape, pattern and texture in my drawings.	I can explore how line, shape, tone and colour can be used in drawing.	I can vary line, pressure and movement to communicate energy and expression.	I can use my sketchbook to record responses to artists, generate ideas and develop possibilities.	I can use my sketchbook independently to collect, reference, experiment with, develop and reflect on ideas.	I can select and combine line, mark making, tone, colour, shape and composition to communicate an
	I can begin to choose drawing tools for the marks I want to make.	I can use drawing to communicate my ideas, experiences and feelings.	I can experiment with drawing media including graphite, pen and oil pastel.	I can combine different drawing media and explore the effects they	I can use light, mid and dark tonal values to create form,	I can select and combine drawing media to achieve	I can experiment

	I can talk about what I have drawn.	between familiar drawing materials for different purposes. I can talk about my drawings and the choices I have made.	drawing tools to create different marks. I can use a sketchbook to explore and record observations and ideas. I can work independently and collaboratively to create drawings. I can talk about my own artwork and respond to the work of artists and my classmates.	create. I can use composition to arrange visual elements purposefully. I can use my sketchbook to collect, explore and develop observations and ideas. I can work at different scales and on different drawing surfaces. I can reflect on my work, identify what has been successful and suggest what I might try differently.	atmosphere and contrast. I can understand and use chiaroscuro to explore dramatic contrasts between light and dark. I can use positive and negative shapes within my drawings. I can use my sketchbook to experiment, record ideas and develop my work. I can reflect on my own work and respond thoughtfully to the work of artists and my classmates.	particular effects. I can control line, line weight, shape, colour and mark making with increasing purpose. I can use composition and sequencing to communicate a narrative or idea. I can develop initial ideas into a resolved piece of artwork. I can reflect on my artistic process, respond to feedback and identify similarities and differences between artworks.	with typography and lettering as part of an artwork. I can combine drawing, mark making, collage and found imagery to develop compositions. I can use symbols and visual elements to communicate ideas that are meaningful to me. I can make purposeful choices about materials, composition and presentation. I can evaluate my work and use feedback to inform its development.	intention. I can use increasingly sophisticated observational techniques, including negative space and the grid method, to support accurate drawing where appropriate. I can use typography and graphic elements purposefully within my work. I can develop and refine drawings in response to experimentation, reflection and feedback. I can use drawing as a starting point for work in other media, including three-dimensional outcomes. I can present and discuss my work, explaining my intentions, artistic choices, process and outcome. I can critically respond to the work of artists and my classmates using appropriate artistic vocabulary.
--	--	--	--	---	--	---	--	---

Vocabulary	Mark, pencil, crayon, chalk, line, shape, straight, curved, round, draw	Drawing, line, mark, shape, detail, observe, pencil, charcoal, pastel, chalk, straight, curved, wavy, represent	Observation, sketchbook, graphite, pen, oil pastel, line, shape, pattern, texture, pressure, continuous line, mark making, collaborative, reflect	Observational drawing, composition, line, shape, tone, colour, scale, drawing media, graphite, wax resist, detail, surface, arrange, reflect, feedback	Charcoal, gesture, gestural, expressive, tone, tonal value, chiaroscuro, contrast, light, midtone, dark, positive shape, negative shape, atmosphere, composition	Illustration, illustrator, narrative, interpretation, composition, sequence, line weight, medium, visual communication, develop, refine, intention, response, feedback	Typography, lettering, symbol, visual impact, composition, purpose, intention, identity, graphics, communicate, reference, experiment, develop, refine, evaluate	Intention, negative space, grid method, proportion, scale, typography, graphic design, composition, tonal value, refine, develop, outcome, presentation, evaluate, critique

Painting / Printmaking
	Nursery (Expressive Arts and Design)	Reception (Expressive Arts and Design)	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Substantive knowledge & Skills	I can explore making marks with paint using brushes and other tools.	I can use a range of brushes and tools to create different painted marks.	I can explore how artists use watercolour and respond to their work.	I can explore how artists use paint expressively and respond to their work.	I can explore how artists combine painting with other materials and processes.	I can explore and compare how traditional and contemporary artists use painting.	I can explore how artists use printmaking and mixed media to communicate ideas, mood and meaning.	I can analyse how artists use painting, printmaking and layered imagery to communicate identity, ideas and meaning.
	I can recognise and name familiar colours.	I can select colours to represent what I observe, imagine or want to communicate.	I can use watercolour to create different marks and effects.	I can mix primary colours to create secondary colours with increasing control.	I can use my sketchbook to test colour, marks, materials and ideas before creating a finished piece.	I can analyse how artists use colour, tone, light, texture and composition to create meaning and visual interest.	I can understand that a monotype is a unique print produced from a prepared surface.	I can independently use my sketchbook to investigate artists, generate ideas, experiment with techniques, refine and reflect.
	I can explore using thick and thin brushes to make different marks.	I can explore what happens when different colours are mixed.	I can use wet-on-wet and wet-on-dry techniques.	I can alter colours to create different hues and tints.	I can mix colours with increasing control to create different hues and tints.	I can use my sketchbook to observe, experiment, record and develop ideas.	I can use my sketchbook to collect marks, respond to stimuli and develop ideas for printmaking.	I can select and adapt painting and printmaking techniques to suit my artistic intention.
	I can select colours for my painting.	I can create new colours by mixing paints.	I can identify and use primary colours.	I can use brushes and other tools to create gestural and expressive marks.	I can alter the consistency and transparency of paint through dilution.	I can mix and select colours purposefully, including variations in hue and tint.	I can create a range of marks and textures when making a monotype.	I can create and use a printing plate to produce imagery.
	I can begin to match colours to things I observe.	I can change the way paint looks and behaves by using different amounts of paint and water.	I can mix primary colours to make secondary colours.	I can explore different ways of applying paint, including thicker and more textured applications.	I can paint onto different surfaces, including fabric.	I can control the placement and layering of imagery within a print.	I can use tone, light and shadow to develop form	I can control line, shape, colour, texture and
	I can use painting equipment with increasing independence.	I can use painting equipment with increasing control	I can vary the amount of water and pigment to create different colour effects.	I can observe colour, shape and form and use	I can combine paint with other media to create
			I can work experimentally

		and independence. I can talk about the colours, marks and choices in my paintings.	and respond to unexpected effects in my painting. I can reflect on my work and talk about the choices I have made.	these within a painting. I can make purposeful choices about colour, mark making and composition. I can reflect on my experiments and final artwork and discuss what has been successful.	texture, pattern and visual interest. I can make purposeful choices about colour, texture, marks and materials to communicate a response or idea. I can reflect on my process and outcome and respond to feedback.	within a painting. I can use composition, foreground and background purposefully when arranging a painting. I can make increasingly independent choices about materials and techniques. I can explain how my experimentation and sketchbook work contributed to my finished artwork.	I can combine printmaking with painting, drawing and collage to develop an artwork. I can adapt my use of colour, line, shape and composition to communicate mood or meaning. I can evaluate my process and outcome and respond constructively to feedback.	layering within painted and printed work. I can combine physical and digital processes where appropriate to develop layered imagery. I can experiment with and refine techniques in response to the effects I achieve. I can make independent decisions about composition, materials and presentation. I can evaluate my artistic journey and outcome, explaining how my choices communicate meaning. I can respond critically and constructively to the work of artists and my classmates.
--	--	--	--	--	---	--	--	---

Vocabulary	Paint, brush, colour, mark, red, yellow, blue, green, orange, wet, dry, thick, thin, mix	Painting, colour, colour mixing, brush, stroke, mark, mix, thick, thin, wet, dry, light, dark, shade	Watercolour, primary colour, secondary colour, colour mixing, wash, wet-on-wet, wet-on-dry, pigment, fluid, brushstroke, mark, effect, experiment, reflect	Expressive, gesture, hue, tint, impasto, texture, colour, shape, form, composition, still life, abstract, brushstroke, palette knife, intention, reflect	Mixed media, acrylic, fabric, hue, tint, dilute, transparency, texture, pattern, layer, surface, foreground, background, process, outcome	Still life, composition, foreground, background, tone, shadow, light, hue, tint, texture, form, genre, contemporary, traditional, visual interest	Printmaking, monotype, print, plate, impression, transfer, layer, mark, texture, composition, mixed media, imagery, mood, stimulus, experiment, refine	Print plate, printmaking, impression, transfer, layer, constructed image, identity, portraiture, digital art, composition, texture, intention, refine, process, outcome, evaluate
-------------------	--	--	--	--	---	---	--	---

Making
	Nursery (Expressive Arts and Design)	Reception (Expressive Arts and Design)	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Substantive knowledge & Skills	I can explore making and building with a range of materials.	I can explore how different materials can be shaped, joined and changed.	I can explore and respond to sculptures made by different artists.	I can explore how artists transform familiar materials and objects into artworks.	I can explore how artists and animators create the impression of movement.	I can explore how artists present and display three-dimensional artwork and consider how context can affect its meaning.	I can explore how artists, designers and craftspeople construct three-dimensional environments for theatre, animation and other purposes.	I can analyse how artists and craftspeople select and manipulate materials to create purposeful three-dimensional and performative artwork.
	I can squeeze, roll, pinch, twist and stretch malleable materials.	I can manipulate malleable materials, including clay, to create forms.	I can use my sketchbook to record observations and ideas inspired by sculpture.	I can use my sketchbook to generate and test ideas for sculpture.	I can use my sketchbook to investigate artists, gather ideas and develop a character or form.	I can use my sketchbook to investigate artists, collect ideas and develop possibilities for sculpture.	I can respond to a stimulus and interpret its mood, narrative or meaning through three-dimensional making.	I can independently use my sketchbook to investigate, generate, test, develop and refine ideas.
	I can join materials using glue and tape.	I can use simple tools to cut, shape, impress and add detail to materials.	I can explore the properties of different materials through making.	I can select materials for their visual and physical qualities.	I can use observation and imagination to develop ideas for a moving artwork.	I can manipulate clay and other materials to create three-dimensional studies and forms.	I can use my sketchbook independently to generate ideas, test materials and develop a design.	I can select materials according to their visual and physical qualities and the outcome I intend to create.
	I can explore building and making at different scales.	I can join and fasten materials using different methods.	I can fold, tear, crumple, bend, twist, cut and fasten materials to change their form.	I can cut, shape, join and fasten materials with increasing control.	I can construct and join components so that parts of an artwork can move.	I can use position, gesture, form and detail to communicate character, emotion or meaning.	I can construct a maquette or model using appropriate materials and joining techniques.	I can use tools and techniques with increasing precision to cut, shape, join and
	I can use simple tools with increasing control and care.	I can use natural, reclaimed and constructed materials to make artwork.	I can transform flat materials from two dimensions into three-dimensional forms.	I can transform materials and objects to create new forms.	I can use simple mechanisms and fastenings to articulate parts of a constructed artwork.	I can consider
	I can talk about what I have made.	I can explore collage and combine materials with		I can consider form, colour, texture, scale and balance when constructing different textures. I can construct sculptures and structures at different scales. I can talk about the materials and processes I have used.	I can combine materials to create a sculpture. I can explore how structure and balance help a sculpture stand. I can work experimentally, allowing ideas to develop through the process of making. I can talk about my sculpture and respond to the work of others.	sculpture. I can develop and change my ideas in response to the materials I am using. I can contribute to collaborative sculpture as well as creating individual work. I can explain how I made my sculpture and respond to feedback.	I can consider pose, gesture, foreground and background when communicating movement or action. I can combine physical making with digital media to record or animate my work. I can reflect on how effectively my choices communicate character and movement.	scale, viewpoint and presentation when developing sculpture. I can understand that an ordinary object can be re-presented as an artwork through artistic choices and context. I can consider how an audience might experience and respond to an artwork. I can work independently and collaboratively to develop and present sculptural ideas. I can evaluate my work and use feedback to consider how it might be developed.	I can make purposeful choices about form, scale, structure, colour and texture. I can use foreground, background, lighting and composition to develop an environment or set. I can adapt and refine my work as construction progresses. I can explain how my material and construction choices communicate my interpretation and intention. I can present and evaluate my work and respond constructively to feedback.	construct materials. I can create articulated forms in which joined components allow controlled movement. I can use form, shape, proportion, movement and detail to communicate character and expression. I can adapt techniques and processes when experimentation suggests a more effective solution. I can work collaboratively where appropriate to combine individual contributions into a coherent artistic outcome. I can consider how presentation, performance, lighting or digital recording affects the audience's

--	--	---	---	---	--	--	---	---

								experience of my work. I can critically evaluate my process and outcome, explaining and justifying my artistic choices.
Vocabulary	Make, build, join, squeeze, roll, pinch, twist, stretch, glue, tape, scissors, material, shape	Sculpture, clay, form, material, construct, join, fasten, collage, texture, impress, shape, model, reclaimed, natural	Sculpture, 2D, 3D, form, structure, balance, fold, tear, crumple, bend, fasten, transform, material, texture, construct	Transform, form, sculpture, construct, fasten, material, texture, scale, balance, structure, select, experiment, collaborative, refine	Animation, animator, articulate, movement, character, pose, gesture, component, fastening, foreground, background, frame, construct, digital media	Plinth, context, display, viewpoint, scale, figurative, form, gesture, presentation, audience, gallery, exhibition, curate, curator, installation, meaning	Set design, maquette, model, structure, scale, construction, stimulus, interpretation, narrative, environment, foreground, background, lighting, composition, intention, refine	Articulation, construction, proportion, form, structure, movement, material qualities, precision, performance, presentation, collaboration, intention, refine, evaluate, outcome