

Phonics
	Nursery (Literacy)	Reception (Literacy)	Year 1	Year 2
Substantive knowledge & Skills	I can listen carefully to sounds around me and distinguish between different sounds. I can hear and identify the initial sound in familiar words. I can recognise words that begin with the same sound. I can recognise and join in with alliterative phrases. I can identify and suggest rhyming words. I can hear and clap the syllables in one- and two-syllable words. I can orally blend sounds to make a word. I can listen to and pronounce sounds clearly. I can recognise and recall the Little Wandle picture cards associated with the sounds I	I can recognise and recall the grapheme–phoneme correspondences taught through the Little Wandle progression. I can say the correct phoneme when I see a taught grapheme. I can orally blend phonemes to make words. I can blend phonemes to read words containing taught GPCs. I can recognise and read words containing taught digraphs and trigraphs. I can read words containing taught GPCs with increasing accuracy and automaticity. I can read increasingly long words containing GPCs I have been taught. I can recognise and read the tricky words taught through the Little Wandle progression. I can apply my phonic knowledge to read	I can recall previously taught GPCs quickly and accurately. I can learn and recall the Phase 5 GPCs taught through the Little Wandle progression. I can recognise that the same phoneme can be represented by different graphemes. I can recognise that some graphemes can represent more than one phoneme. I can use my growing knowledge of the alphabetic code to read unfamiliar words. I can accurately blend phonemes to read increasingly complex words. I can read words containing split vowel digraphs. I can read increasingly long and polysyllabic words containing taught GPCs.	I can review and secure my knowledge of the Phase 5 alphabetic code. I can recall taught GPCs accurately and automatically when reading. I can recognise alternative graphemes and pronunciations within the alphabetic code. I can apply my phonic knowledge automatically when reading unfamiliar words. I can read increasingly complex and polysyllabic words accurately. I can recognise an increasing number of familiar words automatically without overt sounding and blending. I can use my secure knowledge of the alphabetic code to support increasingly fluent reading. I can use my knowledge of phonemes and graphemes as I make the transition from phonics to spelling.

	have explored. KCA follows Little Wandle Foundations for Phonics in Nursery.	phrases and sentences. I can review and secure previously taught GPCs and word-reading skills. I can apply my growing knowledge of the alphabetic code when reading unfamiliar words. Little Wandle sequence: Phase 2 → Phase 3 → Phase 4/review and consolidation	I can read words containing taught suffixes and word endings. I can recognise and read the tricky words taught through the Little Wandle progression. I can apply my phonic knowledge with increasing accuracy and automaticity when reading. I can use Grow the Code to organise and extend my understanding of the different ways phonemes can be represented. I can review and consolidate my knowledge of the Phase 5 alphabetic code. Little Wandle sequence: Review of previous learning → Phase 5 → Grow the Code → review and consolidation	I can identify the phonemes in a word and consider the different graphemes that could represent them. I can apply patterns and conventions introduced through the Little Wandle Bridge to Spelling and Spelling programme. Little Wandle sequence: Phase 5 review → Bridge to Spelling → Little Wandle Spelling
	Keep-up and catch-up: Assessment is used to identify pupils at risk of falling behind the programme. Pupils receive additional practice through the appropriate Little Wandle pathway. Children in Year 1 who are not secure in earlier GPCs receive Daily Keep-up and, where necessary, additional blending practice. Pupils beyond Year 1 who have not yet secured the alphabetic code continue to receive appropriately matched phonics teaching rather than moving on before they are ready.
Vocabulary	Sound, initial sound, rhyme, rhyming, syllable, oral blending, alliteration	Phoneme, grapheme, GPC, blend, digraph, trigraph, tricky word, alphabetic code	Alphabetic code, phoneme, grapheme, GPC, alternative grapheme, alternative pronunciation, digraph, trigraph, split vowel digraph, blend, syllable, suffix, tricky word	Alphabetic code, automaticity, phoneme, grapheme, GPC, alternative grapheme, alternative pronunciation, syllable, root word, suffix, spelling pattern
	The precise sequence of GPCs, tricky words and word-reading skills taught at KCA follows the current Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised programme and associated term-by-term planning.

Early Reading
	Nursery (Literacy)	Reception (Literacy)	Year 1	Year 2
Substantive knowledge & Skills	I can enjoy listening to and joining in with songs, rhymes, poems and stories. I can choose books and engage with them independently and with other people. I can understand that print carries meaning. I can recognise that print can have different purposes. I can understand that English text is read from left to right and from top to bottom. I can handle books carefully and turn pages one at a time. I can identify some features of a book, including the cover and pages. I can talk about what happens in a familiar story. I can use illustrations to talk about characters, events and what might happen. I can make simple links between	Children take part in Little Wandle reading practice sessions focusing on decoding, prosody and comprehension. Books are closely matched to pupils' secure phonic knowledge. I can read a book that is closely matched to the phonic knowledge I have been taught. I can use my phonic knowledge to decode words in a matched text. I can reread a familiar text to develop accuracy and fluency. I can read increasingly familiar words automatically. I can begin to read aloud with appropriate phrasing and expression. I can use punctuation, including full stops, to support my reading aloud. I can talk about what I have read and explain what has happened. I can answer questions about a text I have read or heard. I can identify characters and important	Children take part in Little Wandle reading practice sessions focusing on decoding, prosody and comprehension. Books are closely matched to pupils' secure phonic knowledge. I can read aloud accurately from books closely matched to my secure phonic knowledge. I can use phonics as my primary strategy for decoding unfamiliar words. I can reread texts to develop accuracy, automaticity, fluency and confidence. I can read familiar words increasingly automatically. I can read aloud with developing phrasing, expression and attention to punctuation. I can check that what I have read makes sense and reread when it does not. I can listen to and discuss a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction beyond the level I can read independently. I can become familiar with and retell key	I can read age-appropriate texts accurately and with increasing fluency. I can read most familiar words quickly and accurately without overt sounding and blending. I can use my phonic knowledge to decode unfamiliar words and reread them fluently within the sentence. I can reread texts to improve fluency, phrasing and expression. I can use punctuation to support appropriate intonation and expression when reading aloud. I can notice when my reading does not make sense and self-correct. I can listen to, discuss and express views about a wide range of stories, poetry and non-fiction, including texts beyond those I can read independently. I can retell a range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales. I can identify and discuss the sequence of events in a text. I can recognise recurring language and a story and my own experiences. I can learn and use new vocabulary from stories, rhymes and conversations about books.	events in a story. I can use illustrations and what I have read to make simple predictions. I can make simple inferences about characters' feelings and actions. I can talk about the meaning of new words encountered in books. I can make connections between a text and my own experiences. I can listen to and discuss stories, poems and non-fiction beyond the level I can read independently.	stories, fairy stories and traditional tales. I can recognise and join in with predictable phrases. I can learn and recite rhymes and poems. I can discuss the meaning of words and link new vocabulary to words I already know. I can identify and retrieve information from a text. I can make simple inferences about characters' feelings and actions using what I have read. I can make predictions based on what has happened so far. I can explain my understanding of a text and contribute to discussion about it.	patterns in stories and poetry. I can discuss and clarify the meanings of words and phrases, linking new vocabulary to what I already know. I can retrieve information from fiction, poetry and non-fiction. I can use features such as contents pages and glossaries to locate information in non-fiction texts. I can make inferences about characters' thoughts, feelings and actions using evidence from the text. I can make predictions using what I have read, my knowledge of the text and relevant prior knowledge. I can ask and answer questions about a text and refine my answers as my understanding develops. I can explain and discuss my understanding of books, poems and other texts. I can learn and recite a repertoire of poems, using appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.

Vocabulary	Book, story, rhyme, page, cover, picture, character, word, author	Decoding, fluency, prosody, comprehension, character, event, prediction, meaning, punctuation	Fluency, automaticity, prosody, expression, retrieve, inference, prediction, sequence, vocabulary, traditional tale	Fluency, phrasing, intonation, expression, retrieve, inference, evidence, prediction, sequence, recurring language, contents, glossary